Waste Time Noise VICTORY SCREECH !! HOW SPELL THEM EAGLES !? I can not emphasize just how nice it was to see our run game and protection firing on all cylinders once more. Swift is looking leading rate. Our protective line appears like it maintains QB's up during the night. Feels excellent have the Washington Commanders this afternoon, and I never ever rely on a local game. Eagles should proceed and stomp a mudhole in the Washington O-Line and offer their QB fits. Fingers crossed for a massive declaration W in the department for next week. Finally, this ought to be my last late WTS and we will certainly have them back to releasing on Thursdays! Go Birds !!! Poll Which is the much better Swift/Kelce duo? Commanders Jersey
